

In regards to the proposed announcement for the elimination of morse code requirement in amateur radio licensing, I agree that it should be eliminated. I also think that these band segments should be open to the use of SSB and other modes. The entire spectrum should be open for the use of CW as well as SSB, Data, etc.